

Date Guide

(Print this out and take it on your date!)

Treasure Hunt

Step 1: Go someplace different for dinner.

Step 2: Explore and celebrate your differences.

- Stage your own real-life treasure hunt. Write down the qualities you value about each other on slips of paper. Put these slips of paper in small containers. Hide the containers around the park and provide one another with maps or clues. Collect your treasures. Then come back together and discuss what you've found.
- Take a trip down memory lane by revisiting some of your old haunts or finding new ones that remind you of those from your dating/newlywed days.

Step 3: Relax and unwind. *Ready to answer a few questions?

- What was your favorite part of the evening?
- What was one thing you learned about me tonight that you didn't know before?
- How can we be more intentional in the future about unearthing, cherishing, and celebrating the hidden and mysterious treasures we recognize in one another? What can we do to prevent the routine of life from creating an attitude of boredom about the life we share together?

Step 4: Home sweet home. *Let's plan our next date!

- Talk about additional ways you can rediscover the treasures at the heart of your marriage.
