

Teachers...

You are the molders of their dreams
The gods who build or crush their young beliefs of right or wrong

You are the spark that sets aflame the poet's hand or lights the flame of some great singer's song

You are the gods of the young, the very young
You are the guardian of a million dreams
Your every smile or frown can heal or pierce a heart

Yours are a hundred lives, a thousand lives
Yours the pride of loving them and the sorrow, too

Your patient work, your touch, make you the gods of hope
Who fill their souls with dreams
To make those dreams come true

From the Focus on the Family broadcast "Teacher of the Year" by Guy Doud. President Ronald Reagan read this to Mr. Doud when he received the 1986 National Teacher of the Year for the United States of America. Written by Clark Mollenhoff (deceased). Used with permission.
