Learn to support your child through the questions, emotions, and struggles that death and loss inevitably bring. O’Connor, a grief recovery specialist, explains how to provide a sense of security in the midst of disorienting events and emotions.

Emily Lost Someone She Loved by Kathleen Fucci (2015) • 2350000000943 • preschool–elementary
“Vivacious Emily faces a loss so big it threatens everything she knows. But one night when Emily cries out, ‘Where is God?!’ she learns He is much closer, and loves her so much more, than she ever realized.”

God Gave Us Heaven by Lisa Tawn Bergren (2008) • 9781400074464 • ages 4–8
Based on biblical insight, this picture book takes children on a journey with Little Cub and Papa to help answer questions about heaven.

Heaven for Kids by Randy Alcorn (2006) • 9781414310404 • ages 8–12
Alcorn explores biblical answers to questions kids often have about heaven, and he addresses the difference between where we go when we die and where we will live forever with Jesus after He returns.

If Nathan Were Here by Mary Bahr Fritts (2000) • 9780802852359 • ages 4–8
This book explores the grief of a young boy whose best friend has died. With the help of an understanding teacher, a kind neighbor, and an empathetic parent, he finds ways to process his sorrow — and reach out to someone else who needs him.

It’s Okay to Cry: A Parent’s Guide to Helping Children Through the Losses of Life by H. Norman Wright (2004) • 9781578567591
When a child experiences loss, whether it be small (a broken toy) or traumatic (the death of a friend or family member), he or she needs to know that it’s okay to cry. Wright’s advice equips you to assist those you love grieve and heal.

When Someone Dies: Find Comfort in Jesus by Julie Stiegemeyer (2010) • 9780758618887 • ages 4–7
This gentle picture book helps explain grief to children, acknowledging that it’s okay to be sad, and encouraging them to look to Jesus as their Comforter.

When Your Family’s Lost a Loved One: Finding Hope Together by David Guthrie and Nancy Guthrie (2008) • 9781604829686
When your family’s lost a loved one, reminders are everywhere. There’s no avoiding the pain, and each family member will grieve in his or her own way. But it is possible to find hope, joy, and unity again. Sharing from their personal journey through loss, the Guthries offer practical, compassionate help.
Adventures in Odyssey® #3: Heroes • 9781589970724 •
“Karen”: Donna Barclay tries to cope when her best friend, Karen Crosby, becomes ill with cancer.

Adventures in Odyssey® #7: On Thin Ice • 9781589972346 •

Coping With the Loss of a Loved One – I, II (David and Nancy Guthrie) • 9781624710919 •
Losing two infants to the same genetic disorder, the Guthries share candidly about their journey through grief (along with their eight-year-old son, Matt)—and about the importance of faith in God’s sovereignty.

Rescued Horses: Renewed Hope for Kids – I, II (Troy and Kim Meeder) • 9781624713224 •
In 1995, the Meeders bought eight acres of land in Oregon and turned it into a ranch for horses rescued from abuse and neglect. But when they began inviting troubled children to the ranch to help care for the horses, they realized that mutual healing was taking place—and that God was restoring broken lives.

Walking Through Grief With Your Child (Kathleen Fucci) • 2350000011215 •
As the new bride of a widower, Fucci stepped into the overwhelming role of mom to three grieving children. Years later, she shares what she learned about the grieving process. From listening and asking questions to encouraging your child to serve and give, learn powerful ways you can walk with them.
