Broadcasts

Abuse: One Survivor’s Story (Michael Reagan) • 9781624711350 •

As a child, Reagan’s history of illegitimacy and adoption led him to hate God and himself—and being sexually molested by a camp counselor only increased his despair. But his healing and salvation came when he surrendered everything to God. And with the support of his wife, Reagan began to forgive those who had hurt him and to understand the depth of Christ’s love.

Finding Healing From Sexual Assault (Leila Sommerfeld and Kathleen Terrill) • 2350000010652 •

Sommerfeld and Terrill are both survivors of rape. They vulnerably describe what happened and the years of fear, depression, and devastation they experienced. But both women felt God drawing them into a relationship of healing and reconciliation.

God’s Hope for Wounded Hearts (Dan Allender, Ph.D.) • 9781624711077 •

Even in the Christian community, we often avoid discussing topics that cast doubt on God’s faithfulness and care—but doing so can make sexual abuse difficult to acknowledge. Allender shares from his own past to encourage others to bring their wounded souls to the Lord for healing, and to learn how to share their hearts with others.

Healing the Wounds of Childhood Sexual Abuse (Lisa Harper) • 9781624711046 •

Harper was abused as a young child. Despite having a successful ministry when she reached adulthood, she unconsciously continued to live with the shame of her history. But through Christian counseling, a deep trust in the Lord, and forgiving those who harmed her, she experienced true healing.

How Your Past Impacts Your Relationships (Shelly Beach) • 9781624715044 •

Beach shares her personal journey of being attacked by a serial rapist and how that affected her life, resulting in an intense need to control everything around her, including her marriage and parenting. But the more she surrendered her thought life to God on a moment-by-moment basis, the more she learned to live in light of His grace and truth.

Helping Your Husband Overcome Childhood Sexual Abuse (Cecil Murphey, Gary Roe) • 9781624718946 •

Murphey and Roe, both survivors of childhood sexual abuse, tell others that there is hope. Marriage is possible, but wives need to know they’re not responsible for their husband’s healing.

Helping Your Wife Overcome Childhood Sexual Abuse (Dawn Scott Jones) • 9781624718847 •

Scott Jones’ father molested her from age 12 through 17, and her first marriage ended after 28 years—ultimately due to her inability to be intimate and her husband’s infidelity and abandonment. She cautions that the husband is a second victim when his wife has been abused. Learn how you can help a spouse in the healing process.

Impacting the Culture by Walking With Jesus (Lisa Harper) • 2350000009687 •

Harper discusses some of the difficult life challenges she’s experienced—including sexual abuse as a child—and how she’s learned to depend on God, accept His love, and live out her faith.

Men & Sexual Abuse: Hope for Wounded Hearts (Dan Allender, Ph.D.) • 9781624711398 •

Sexual abuse has long been seen only as a woman’s issue, but Allender explores the ramifications on men. Especially for children, incidents of abuse can lead to sexual confusion. But there is hope for healing and an abundant, healthy life.

Transformed: Overcoming My Dark Past (Marilyn Williams) • 9781624717857 •

Williams suffered sexual abuse at the hands of her father, grandfather, and their friends from an early age. Desperate for help, she confided in a high school counselor, which led to the prosecution of her father—but he was returned to the home. Her college dreams died, and she became socially afraid, eventually displaying multiple personality disorder. But she married a good man, and God restored her peace.
